Recipients:

Selected candidates/applicants must be aware that if they are proposed for a scholarship/fellowship, put on the reserve list or enrolled on a self-paying basis, their data may be used for the purposes of evaluating the programmes, efficiently manage the projects, and producing statistics. Data could be made available to the EACEA, the European Commission, the European External Action Service staff, and other stakeholders of the Erasmus+ programme (Erasmus+ National Agencies, National Erasmus+ Offices and the Erasmus Mundus Student and Alumni Association).

The European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA), in the context of managing the Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters, collects and processes the personal data of some of the candidates. In particular, certain data of the scholarship holders and non-scholarship holders is shared with the Agency and treated according to this privacy statement:

https://ec.europa.eu/info/funding-tenders/opportunities/docs/2021-2027/common/ftp/privacy-statement-grants-and-prizes_layer2_en.pdf

Furthermore, as demanded by Erasmus+ programme, personal data of scholarship holders and self-funded students (name, country, date of birth) is transferred to an insurance company for receiving a group policy. Eventual claim management is up to the individual student and may require financial, medical, criminal and other sensitive data to be transferred outside the EU e.g. to experts, aid workers or care providers.

In the context of the Erasmus Mundus MARIHE programme, we will transfer personal data to our partner institutions Beijing Normal University, in the People's Republic of China, and Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, in the Republic of India, on the lawful basis of performance of a contract under Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR and, where required, your explicit consent under Article 49(1)(a) GDPR. The following personal data will be sent in this context: personal data (full name, date and place of birth, nationality, gender, CV), academic information (grades, transcripts), contact information (e-mail address).

We have signed with our partner institutions the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses and conducted a thorough Transfer Impact Assessment to ensure that your data will be afforded safeguards equivalent to those guaranteed by EU law. Your personal will be protected at all times by state-of-the-art technical and organizational measures, including end-to-end encryption, strict access controls and regular audits of our overseas partners.
